

“Grubb & Ellis|BRE Commercial had an unbelievable knowledge of the marketplace. They knew every landlord and every space available in our chosen area. They found us the perfect location and skillfully negotiated the transaction.”

Priority Moving, Inc. is a full-service moving, delivery and storage company committed to consistently providing high-quality service to all of its customers. In addition to moving assistance for institutional clients and individuals for local, long distance and international moves, the company offers secure storage and delivery for notable high-end furniture retailers across the country.

Founded in 2002, Priority Moving, Inc. utilizes specially trained crews, modern equipment, and state-of-the-art technology to deliver ultimate customer satisfaction. An agent of Wheaton Worldwide and the preferred mover for San Diego’s premiere apartment communities and real estate brokers, the company’s customer-centric approach has secured a distinguished list of referral and repeat clients and resulted in numerous industry awards.

In order to accommodate its growing client base and additional business needs, Priority Moving, Inc. set out in search of a new location. Contacting Grubb & Ellis|BRE Commercial (G&E|BRE), whom it knew had great industry relationships, was the first step.

“We had very unique and specific needs,” said President Bryan Bloom, pictured with General Manager Ira Wren. “We wanted a central location in the Miramar area at a reasonable rate, the warehouse had to have very high ceilings and be military approvable. We also had to have space to park our large fleet of trucks.

“(G&E|BRE) Brokers Bryce Aberg and Glenn Arnold had an unbelievable knowledge of the marketplace. They knew every landlord and every space available in our chosen area. They found us the perfect location and skillfully negotiated the transaction.”
